Let's Celebrate Mary Ann Tighe: A True Real Estate Pioneer

Posted November 1st, 2013 by FunnelCast

There are so many inspirational women in the real estate industry who deserve to be celebrated. One on the true pioneers in the industry is Mary Ann Tighe, CEO of CBRE's New York Tri-State Region. She is well known throughout the industry and business community as a trailblazer and leader on many levels.

Ms. Tighe recently discussed East Midtown Rezoning at the WX New York Women Executives in Real Estate breakfast, at the Harvard Club in New York City. WX New York Women Executives in Real Estate is an invitation-only association of executive women actively engaged in the commercial real estate industry in New York. WX's diverse membership includes owners, developers, brokers, architects, engineers, bankers and lawyers.

Apparently we weren't the only ones impressed by Tighe's recent efforts; the breakfast was sold out! Real estate executives listened carefully as Tighe explored the importance of developing state-of-the-art buildings in Midtown East to attract new businesses in order to maximize the area's potential as a thriving business center.

You might remember Mary Ann Tighe from our Real Estate Rockstars: Top Commercial Brokers in New York Poll. Tighe took the top spot in our Tenant Rep Brokers segment. We applaud Ms. Tighe for her continued leadership and inspiration to countless women and professionals in the commercial real estate industry.
