

REAL ESTATE WEEKLY

October 18, 2017

WX New York Women Executives in Real Estate (WX) hosted the WX October Breakfast at the Harvard Club in Manhattan. A panel of experts discussed foreign capital investment in New York City real estate. The speakers addressed the investment trends and challenges of deploying off-shore capital in today's market, changes in the regulatory environment, and how the new geopolitical landscape impacts foreign investment. Speakers included Stephen Muller, chief investment officer, Arris Properties Group; Marion Jones, managing director, Ackman-Ziff; Nathalia Bernardo, partner, Paul Hastings and; David W. Hamm, Director in Transactions, Deutsche Asset Management.

